A BATCH OF SMILES

A woman who traveled a great deal in the West was known as the most aveterate "kicker" a certain hotel and ever known.

One evening after she had been erved with dessert, this lady, who was always complaining, asked the waiter why the dish served her was K. Segawa, contractor and builde called "ice cream pudding."

"If you don't like it, ma'am, I'll bring you something else," suggested the polite negro.

"Oh, it's very nice," responded the lady, "What I object to is that it N. Kanai, contractor, builder, painter, should be called ice cream pudding, paperhanger; los calabashes and should be called ice cream pudding. It's wrongly named. There should be ice cream served with it."

"Yes, ma'am," replied the waiter, "but that's jest our name for it. Lots o' dishes that way. Dey don't bring you a cottage with cottage pudding, you know."

A well-known businessman who lives in the suburbs and usually goes home by the 5:30 train met a friend the other day, and was persuaded to remain in town for the evening and S. "Missed the 5:30 train. Do not keep L dinner waiting. Will be home late. It was a good deal later when he reached home, and his wife met him T. Buzuki; all kinds of building work at the door.

"Did you get my message, dearest?" he asked quickly, hoping to forestall the trouble. "Yes," she replied in chilly accents "and I would like you to explain why you sent a note at 4:28 telling me you = had missed the 5:30 train."

"'My mouth is three inches acrost, five-eighths inches threw the jaw. Some hummocky on the edge. Shapedlike a hoss shew, toe forward. If you ___ want to be more particular | shall have to come thar."-Everybody's Magazine.
